

JOEL LEE

Joel Lee is unmistakably a country rocker at heart, with songs like his 2021 hit "This party ain't over" and 2020 smash "Adrenaline", his music speaks for itself. Joel brings the party... his rendition of Arrowsmiths "Sweet emotion" is nothing short of jaw- dropping. Joel Lee is no different to everyone else at a country festival, he wants to kick it in gear and have some fun.

Drawing inspiration from musical luminaries such as Eric Church, Jason Aldean, Kings of Leon, Keith Urban and Cold play, Joel Lee infuses his distinctive perspective into every song he writes. Having had the irreplaceable opportunity to work with world class producers and mix engineers such as Jeff Dawson (Daniel Powter), Mike Fraser (AC-DC) and most recently Jay Buettner (George Canyon) Joel has been undoubtedly shaped by the incredible talent and skill of some of the best Producers, engineers and studio musicians on the planet.

Boasting two top 30 singles and his self produced single "this party ain't over" peaking at number 1 on the Canada country countdown, his discography boasts a collection of critically acclaimed singles that have left an indelible mark on fans both locally and internationally. With his brand new single "Jump Jump" just released July 2024, the single is already making an impact on the country music scene...

"Jump Jump" has all the makings of a hit single with its punchy verses and even punchier chorus" (Record World International)

" the single is an attention-grabber from the outset... the hook and melody instantly become ear worms" (Cashbox Canada)
